

THURSDAY NOVEMBER 3. 1743.

Warsaw, October 18.

According to our last Advice from Constantinople, the Affairs of that Empire are in dreadful Confusion; the Shah Nadir having advanced almost to the Banks of the Euphrates, found a Turkish Army, in his Way, assembled for the Protection of the great Province of Diarbeck; one of the most considerable, in Point of Profit, within their Dominions.

He immediately made the necessary Dispositions for attacking them; and tho' their Foot made an obstinate Resistance, yet their Horse being beat at the first Charge, they were at last obliged to give Way, and were finally defeated with a great Slaughter. By this Victory, the Shah possesses all the Flat Country; that is, all the Ancient called Mesopotamia, Babylonia, and Chaldea; and when the News arrived at Constantinople, was thought to have passed the Euphrates. This News, as is natural, occasioned great Commotions in that City; the Confidence of which has proved fatal to the Minister, who still, however, in favour with his Master; though, to satisfy the Humour of the Populace, he has been obliged to part with him at a Time, perhaps, when he most needed his Assistance.

Frankfort, November 3. The Winter-Quarters of the Imperial Army are regulated after the following Manner. The Head-Quarters are to be here, in this City; the Regiments of Horse of Gabrieli and Zollern, are to have their Quarters in the Circle of Franconia, where the Magazines also are to be established. The Regiment of Ottingen, which is also Horse, is to be quartered in the Territories of the Princes of that Family; the Walloon Horse in the Bishoprick of Liege; the Regiment Tour and Taxis, in the Dominions of the Abbot of Fulda; the Regiment of Thoring in the Duchy of Bergh; that of Frohnberg in the Duchy of Cleves; the Regiment of Hollenstein in the Electorate of Cologne; the Imperial Hussars, and the Artillery, in the Neighbourhood of Ulm, in the Circle of Suabia. The Infantry are to be quartered as follows; the Regiment of Guards at Badenbourg and Battenbourg; the Regiment of the Prince Royal, with three other Companies of Foot, and many Troops of Horse, at Wemblingen; the Regiment of Prince Clement at Philipsberg, the Regiment Seckendorff in the Marquitate of Anspach; the Regiment of Minucci at Fort Kehl; that of Moravitzki the Bailiwick of Grimbregue; the Regiment of Preising at Donawert; that of Saxe Hildbourghausen, in the Territories of the Prince of that Name; the Regiment Truchses in the Circle of the Higher Rhine. Prince George of Hesse Cassel is arrived here. The Hessian Troops, in the Pay of Great Britain, and who are commanded by that Prince, are going to take Winter-Quarters in their own Country; the first Column of them passed the Day through our Neighbourhood. The Marquis de Brigny, Minister from his most Christian Majesty, has had Conferences with the Imperial Ministers; we expect, in a very few Days, the famous Col. Mentzel, who is said, will pass the best part of the Winter here; who is already pretty well recovered of his Wound.

Leipsic, November 1. The Duke de Saxe Hildbourghausen dined, on the 29th, with our most Serene Elector; the Electoral Highness has given Leave to the Dutch Commissaries to transport their Provisions in such manner as they shall think proper, through his Dominions. He has also, of establishing great Magazines all along the Rhine, for the Service of the Army of the Allies; they are taking the same Precautions on the other side of the River for the Service of the French, who are endeavouring to have all Things ready for an early spring, in case the Negotiations that are carrying on for a general Peace should miscarry, as many of our People think they will. We are likewise informed, that the French are providing all the Materials necessary for throwing a Bridge over the Rhine, near Hunninguen, on occasions many Speculations. It is observed, in mean time, that our Court endeavours to keep the Peace, as even as may be, between the contending Parties; will, in all probability, persist firmly in maintaining Neutrality which we find so beneficial in this State. A courier arrived here lately, with News from Italy, by no Means, agrees with what the French Ministers had published of the Situation of Things in that Country; for, according to his Letters, the French Spaniards have lost, in the late Action against the King of Sardinia, in their hasty Retreat, and through unlucky Consequences, no less than 10,000 Men; and, at the same time, Prince Lobkowitz is in full March, with a superior Army, to fight the Spaniards. We have this News from an Officer in the Queen of Hungary's Service, who is a Native of this Country, and is now at Turin for the Recovery of his Health; and it is observed, that it has made great Impressions here, notwithstanding the French Minister persists in affirming, that the Spaniards did not lose above 700 Men at the Attack at Chateau Dauphin.

Tho. Corbett.

To be LETT,

At Kenner, near Celbury Hill, Four Miles from Marlborough, in the Road to Bath and Bristol,

A Gentleman's House, very Commodious for an INN and TAVERN, adjoining to the said Roads, with or without a Farm House and Farm, which consists of about 120 Acres of Down, 27 Acres of Water Meadow, 7 Acres of Dry Meadow, and 200 Acres of Arable, which lies between the Down and Meadows. The Land is all in Several, and lie as near together as Land can lie. No Part thereof did ever rot. The Rent of the Farm will be about 230 L. a Year.

In the House and Farm-House there are Four Cellars, Seven very good Parlours, and a very large Kitchen, and several Out-houses, Twelve Rooms up one Pair of Stairs, and very good Garrets over all of them; Four Gardens with Ponds, and the River Kennet runs at the Bottom thereof, a large Bower, and Five Nurseries, in which are several Thousand Forest Trees.

In the Grounds adjoining to the House and Highway, there are several Double Rows of Trees, and Three large Arbours next to the Road.

All the Down is divided by Elms into Four Squares. It will be Lett upon very Reasonable Terms, Furnished, or Unfurnished, and for a long or a short Term.

No Wine is now sold on the Road between Sandy-Lane and Marlborough, which is Seventeen Miles distant.

Coachmen can drive from Reading to Kenner in less Time and with more Ease to their Horses, than they can drive from Kenner to Bath, by reason of the rough Roads, heavy Sands, and high stony Hills; therefore Kenner seems to be the most proper Place for a Three Days Stage.

Enquire of Mr. Smith of Kenner, who will give all proper Encouragement to a good Tenant.
